

ARCHIVES DEPARTMENTINFORMATION SHEET 57*RESERVE STORE COLLECTIONS

The Archives Department is responsible for a number of collections that range from the business records of local manufacturers to local societies, research collections and includes the records of our parent organisation National Museums Liverpool. These are stored at the Reserve Store, North Street (off Dale Street, Liverpool). Originally a warehouse owned by Liverpool Brewer, Higson's, the Reserve Store is open strictly by advance appointment. Some maritime collections are also located at the Reserve Store, but the bulk of these are held at the Maritime Archives & Library, based at the Merseyside Maritime Museum, Albert Dock.
